Fresh bread, cakes and pies at McCor's restaurant.

Chas. Tacket and family moved into the old Thompson property on Douglas avenue this week.

J. W. Hanna, a dealer in Beaver county dirt, was up from Ivanhoe Saturday on a business trip.

Mrs. Henderson is reported as quite sick with typhoid fever. Her friends wish her a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Peckham are the proud parents of a daughter, born to them Saturday, August 8th.

Miss Minnie Tremaine, niece of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Quinn, arrived Friday from Pratt, Kansas, for a visit.

Miss Laura Mackey, of Nye, was a guest of Miss Mae Maple the past week, returning home Sunday.

Miss Mary Davis was in from Clear Lake Monday. She reports a great deal of typhoid in that vicinity.

WANTED—To buy some threshed oats. See me or write J. W. Mitchell, Liberal mail carrier, Beaver, Okla.

Pure lard at 10c per lb. at the City Meat Market. Ask for wholesale price. Lard buckets taken in trade.

Miss Dot Chilcott is decorating the Democrat sanctum sanctorum and is making a pretty good sort of a Devil.

Mrs. Harry Wellborn and baby are visiting home folks here this week. They came over from Englewood Monday.

F. C. Tracy left today for Kansas City where he goes to lay in his fall stock. He will be absent about ten days.

L. M. Long, Balko's busy merchant, was a Beaver caller Monday and while here gave the HERALD a nice order for stationery.

The big doin's at Floris is coming off this week. A big crowd is reported in attendance and everyone is having a good time.

Mrs. Emma Hanover is slinging pewter at the Journal office and hopes to become a full-fledged Devil in a short time.

Judge J. W. Culwell and wife are enjoying a visit from the former's mother, who arrived last week for an extended visit.

A. J. McKew left this week for old Mexico where will seek a location and if successful will remove his family to that place later.

The first ripe watermelons of the season were marketed in Beaver Saturday. They were small but sold just like big melons.

Mrs. Stanley Wiles, formerly Miss Bernice Over, of Cline, spent the past week in Beaver visiting at the home of Mrs. J. W. Savage.

Mrs. W. H. Withour and daughter, Vera, who have been visiting in eastern Oklahoma for the past month, returned home Thursday.

J. R. Quinn, recently elected state committeeman, left Sunday for Oklahoma City to attend the republican state convention as a delegate.

"Dad" Frazee and father were in from Pronto Saturday. They took home a fine new Anchor buggy from the Carter-Tracy hardware store.

WANTED—A girl for general housework. See or write

Mrs. NETTIE BROWN,
Beaver, Okla.

Mrs. H. N. Lawson and little daughter, Gretchen, left Wednesday for Hutchinson on a visit to relatives. They will be away several weeks.

FOR SALE.—Two spans of work mules; none over 7 years old. No blemish.

Mrs. C. A. MELTON.

Miss Mae Hinkle, Roy Bradford and Rice McNulty were guests of Miss Lillie Crabtree Sunday for dinner. Of course the day was an enjoyable one.

118 acre valley farm to trade for Oklahoma land. For description, write

WM. BARNETT,
8-6 8-13 Winona, Mo.

May Stone and sister, Miss Isis, who have been visiting at the home of Miss Flossie Seward, at Wynet, for the past two weeks, returned home Sunday.

W. P. Evans and family have been enjoying a visit from Mrs. Evans' sister and father of Ohio, the past few weeks. The visitors returned to their homes last week.

Typhoid fever is becoming almost epidemic over the county. One should be careful what they eat and drink these hot days and rid their premises of all stagnant water and refuse.

A. N. Fowler, who has been visiting at the home of his son-in-law, Mr. Carter, of Cottonwood, for some time past, returned this week to Ardmore, where he will visit a son for some time.

County Clerk Beardsley and wife spent a part of last week visiting their son, Roy and family, at Gate. They returned to Beaver Saturday bringing little Billy Beardsley with them for a visit.

The young ladies gave a Return dance to the gentlemen Friday night. There was a big crowd in attendance and a most enjoyable time was had. Everybody voted the occasion a decided success.

Miss Ruth Weir, who has been visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. W. T. Quinn, for some time past, returned to her home at Oberlin, Kan., this week. Enoch Quinn accompanied her to Liberal.

Quite a number of Beaver people enjoyed a pleasant evening at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Allen last Friday night at an ice cream social. Everybody had a nice time and plenty of ice cream.

County Attorney Wellborn had his farm residence moved in this week and is putting it in shape for occupancy. This, together with their already roomy residence, will give them a large and comfortable home.

B. B. Gant passed through Beaver Monday on his return home near Blaine, Colorado. He made the trip down on horseback and was returning in the same manner, and says it is nothing when one gets used to it.

STRAYED—From my place 2 miles west of Beaver, two black sows, with three or four pigs. Information as to whereabouts gladly rewarded by

ART. E. LIGHTFOOT,
8-6 8-13 Beaver, Okla.

Misses Mae Weir and Chris Charbonneau were initiated into Royal Neighbor lodge Thursday night of last week. His goatship behaved very becomingly with his fair riders and the girls agree that "things are not what they seem" after all.

Mrs. F. P. Madison left Friday for Goldfield, Colorado, where she will spend the remainder of the summer with relatives in the hope of improving her health. There is no doubt but that she will find the relief she seeks in Colorado's delightful climate.

W. E. Fickel and wife arrived in Beaver the past week and are now at home to their friends after a honeymoon spent in Kansas. They are receiving the hearty congratulations of the former's host of friends. The HERALD joins in welcoming their return.

Miss Erma Crabtree and the editor of the HERALD left today for a few weeks vacation. Miss Erma will visit relatives and friends in Kansas and Missouri and Miss Maude will attend the annual meeting of the National Editorial Association which meets in St. Paul, Minn. She will spend two weeks in Canada before her return.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Thomas spent a very pleasant day at the delightful farm home of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Evans, near Riverside, Friday. They report everything looking elegant at that fine country home and trees and shrubs a delight to gaze upon. Mr. Evans certainly has an attractive farm but it was made so by dint of hard toil.

During our absence from the HERALD office, Mr. M. Mullins, the foreman, will have entire charge of affairs. Tell your troubles to him. We have supplied him with a "strong box," so don't be afraid to come in and pay anything that you may owe this office and transact your business with him, being sure that he will take care of you in a proper manner. Let the many old friends and a host of new ones continue to boost the HERALD along in our absence, and the blessings of "yours truly" will be upon them.

If you need ANYTHING in printing, remember the HERALD office does it right.

ON TO HOOKER.

Beaver Valley & Northwestern Survey Being Extended to the West

The surveying corps of the B. V. & N. W. railway, having finished the locating preliminary survey from Gate to Beaver, set stakes this morning and are now enroute with a survey of the railroad to westward, Hooker being the projected destination. The work will be pushed with all possible speed until the survey is completed. Dr. Kerns, of Sunset, gave us the personnel of the party as follows: H. A. Perkins, chief engineer, Leavenworth, Kan.; W. R. King, level man, Leavenworth, Kan.; J. E. Thayer, transit man, Port Lavaca, Tex.; V. V. Manning, head chain man, Leavenworth, Kan.; B. L. Holderman, rod man, Long Island, Kan.; L. J. Nofziger, topographer, Anthony, Kan.; G. Hunt, assistant topographer, Leavenworth, Kan.; Clide Bruce, rear chainman, Wichita, Kan.; F. Green, axman, Gate, Okla.; B. H. Wood, back flagman, Sunset, Okla.; commissary being handled by Mr. Fisher and wife. Mr. Willhour, of Beaver, is with us, looking after the comfort of the comfort of the level man, while Mr. Rose, of Catesby, is busy up and down the line seeing that everything for the comfort of the boys is done. We have our tents at Dr. Kerns' house, but will move Friday or Saturday, probably to Clear Creek. Mr. Mitchell, of Ivanhoe, furnished dinner for the boys and Mrs. Dr. White, of Texas, sent them a splendid dinner.

Mother and Daughter Die.

A sad home is that of Wm. McKiever, of Surprise. Typhoid fever has robbed it the past week of a mother and daughter and two more children are dangerously ill with the same malady.

The sympathy of the entire community goes out to Mr. McKiever in his deep sorrow, and trust that the remaining members of his family may be restored to health speedily.

Adjudged Insane

Uncle Barney Pitta, of near Gate, was brought before the Insanity Board last week and upon examination was adjudged insane and committed to the asylum at Supply. Mr. Pitta was among the oldest settlers in that neighborhood and his many friends deeply regret this unfortunate circumstance and hope for his speedy recovery. Deputy Sheriff Madison took the patient to Supply.

Entertains S. S. Class

Mrs. J. R. Quinn entertained her Sunday school class at her home Tuesday afternoon. Twenty-one children were there, all being present except four. The time was spent at playing games. The only prize game was a peanut hunt. Elizabeth Stone received first prize; Lois Quinn, second, Gale Hodge, third prize. After the games the picnic lunch was spread in the yard and all enjoyed themselves very much.

The Campaign is On

In earnest. Who will be president? To form your opinions and keep in touch with the progress of the campaign, you will need first-class newspapers.

We have arranged whereby you can get The Dallas Semi-Weekly News and The Beaver Herald both for $1.75 cash.

This gives you a live metropolitan paper and a live local paper, three papers each week, not only through the campaign and election, but for one whole year. Place your order now with THE HERALD, Beaver, Okla.
